

Internal Appeals Procedure

In accordance with the Code of Practice for the conduct of external qualifications produced by the QCA, The Angmering School is committed to ensuring that:

- Internal assessments are conducted by staff who have the appropriate knowledge, understanding and skills.
- Assessment evidence provided by candidates is produced and authenticated according to the requirements of the relevant Specifications for each subject.
- The consistency of internal assessment is assured through internal standardisation as set out by the Awarding Bodies.
- Staff responsible for internal standardisation and/or assessment attend any compulsory training sessions.

Written Appeals Procedure

Each Awarding Body publishes procedures for appeals against its decisions, and the Examinations Officer will be able to advise students and parents of these procedures.

Appeals may be made to the school/college regarding the procedures used in internal assessment, but not the actual marks or grades submitted by the school/college for moderation by the Awarding Body.

A student or parent wishing to appeal against the procedures used in internal assessments should contact the Examinations Officer as soon as possible to discuss the appeal, and a written appeal must be received by the School at least two weeks before the date of the last external exam in the subject.

On receipt of a written appeal, an enquiry into the internal assessment will be conducted by the Examinations Officer. This enquiry will consider whether the procedures used in the internal assessment conformed to the published requirements of the Awarding Body.

The appellant will be informed in writing of the outcome of the appeal, including details of any relevant communication with the Awarding Body and of any steps taken to further protect the interests of the candidates.

Information for Students

If at any stage during your exam courses you have concerns about the procedures used in assessing your internally marked work for public exams (e.g. coursework / portfolio / projects / performance) you should first speak with your subject teacher and/or your form tutor and discuss the matter fully with him/her. Hopefully this will resolve the situation.

If you are still unhappy you should then see the Examinations Officer as soon as possible.

The Examinations Officer, Mrs Vaughan, can be contacted on 01903 772351, (jvaughan@angmeringschool.co.uk), or in the Main school office.
